Section 4.13 Method of Voting - General Matters

Any question raised at a general, special, or requisitioned meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless a recorded vote is required by the chairperson of the meeting or is demanded by an owner or mortgagee present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote either before or promptly after the vote, and unless a recorded vote is so required or demanded, a declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that the vote upon the question has been carried, or carried by a particular majority, or not carried, is prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such question.

Section 4.14 Method of Voting - For Election of Directors.

1. If the number of candidates nominated for the position of director is equal to the number of positions available at a meeting and nominations have been properly closed, the chairperson may declare that the candidates so nominated shall be elected to the office directly by acclamation.
2. If there are more candidates nominated for the position of director than there are vacancies to be filled at any meeting, the vote for the election of directors shall be made by ballot and by proxy only in the following manner:
 - a. A ballot shall be given to every owner or mortgagee present in person and entitled to vote which ballot may either be a blank paper or paper containing the names of the persons nominated;
 - b. Only names submitted at the office can be on the ballot. If it is a blank ballot, those persons entitled to vote shall write the names of the candidates of their choice on the paper or if it is a printed ballot, they shall mark an "x", check mark or make some other clear indication of their choice opposite the candidates of their choice. If it is a blank ballot, the persons entitled to vote shall not write the name of a candidate on such ballot more than once;
 - c. If a valid proxy is submitted for the election of directors it shall, in accordance with the Act, include the name of the candidate(s) that the donor of the proxy wishes to vote for and such proxies shall be counted in the election of the directors in the same fashion as a ballot and the proxy holder shall not receive a ballot for the election of directors in respect of such proxy;
 - d. If a valid proxy is submitted at a meeting where directors are to be elected but does not contain the names of any of the candidates, it may not be used for the election of any director including those that may be nominated from the floor, but the proxy holder will be entitled to exercise the right to vote for each proxy he or she holds for other matters listed in the agenda for the meeting or are otherwise properly brought before the meeting.

- e. If a meeting is called at which a vote is to be held to remove a director or directors prior to the end of their term, the level of vote required to remove such director or directors shall be those owners who represent a majority of all of the units in the Corporation and proxies submitted for such meetings must include the name or names of the director or directors that the donor of the proxy wishes to vote to remove or not to remove and the names of those candidates that the proxy donor wishes to vote to elect to fill any vacant positions that arise because of the removal of a director or directors.

Section 4.15 Nominations.

1. Any person who is qualified to be a director may be nominated by another owner to be a candidate for any position on the Board of directors that is vacant and such nominations do not require a seconder.
2. An owner may nominate himself or herself;
3. Any notification received from the Board in accordance with section 4.07. paragraph (4) of this Article IV shall be considered a valid nomination in accordance with these By-laws;
4. A proxy that is provided by an owner for a meeting at which one or more directors are to be elected, that contains the names of one or more candidates for those positions, shall be considered as a valid nomination of those candidates named in the proxy;
5. Only those owners present in person at the meeting shall be entitled to vote for candidates who are nominated from the floor at the meeting.

Section 4.16 Scrutineers.

The Chairperson may appoint scrutineers to assist in collecting, examining and counting the ballots but only the Chairperson may rule on the validity of a ballot or proxy.

Section 4.17 Representatives.

A committee of a mentally incompetent owner or mortgagee, an estate trustee, power of attorney, attorney, guardian or trustee of an owner or mortgagee and, where a Corporation acts in such capacity, any person duly appointed by proxy for such Corporation, upon filing with the Secretary of the meeting sufficient proof of such appointment, may represent the owner or mortgagee at a meeting of the owners of the Corporation and may vote in the same manner and to the same extent as an owner or mortgagee. If there be more than one estate trustee, power of attorney, committee, attorney, guardian or trustee, the provisions of section 4.10 and 4.11 of this Article shall apply.

Section 4.18 Proxies.

1. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing, dated, identify the particular meeting for which it is to be used and be signed by the owner or mortgagee or its attorney authorized in writing. A photocopy, e-mail or facsimile copy of a proxy that is otherwise valid and is legible shall be accepted.

2. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited with the secretary of the meeting prior to the commencement of the meeting.
3. Proxies used at meetings where directors are to be removed and/or elected shall also conform to the requirements of the Act and this Article.
4. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be decided by the Chairperson.
5. Proxies submitted for a meeting of the owners shall be retained by the Corporation as a record for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of the meeting.
6. The Corporation may use a form of proxy that contains provisions allowing the donor of the proxy to direct the manner in which his or her proxy is to be voted in respect of any matter to be voted upon as set out in the notice and agenda issued for the meeting. If such a proxy form is used and the donor does not indicate how his or her vote is to be directed, the proxy holder shall be entitled to vote the proxy in such fashion as he or she may decide for matters other than the election of directors.

Section 4.19 Votes to Govern.

At all meetings of owners every question shall, unless otherwise required by the Act, Declaration or By-laws, be decided by a majority of the votes duly cast on the question by those owners who are present, in person or by proxy, at the meeting and are entitled to vote.

Section 4.20 Adjournment of Meeting.

The Chairperson at a meeting of owners may, with the consent of the meeting and subject to such conditions as the meeting may decide, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, provided that the calling and holding of such meeting shall be governed by the Act and this By-law.
